

PERSONAL UMBRELLA PROGRAM REINSTATED!

We are pleased to announce that we have reinstated our Personal Umbrella Program effective today 10/27/2025!

We want you to know that we heard you and understand how important our Personal Umbrella Product is to your Agency and Insureds. We sincerely want to apologize for any confusion we created by discontinuing our Personal Umbrella Product. While we had every intent to release a new program, we recognized that the new program, that was being pushed by the reinsurance market was unfortunately not up to our standards for delivery and would not provide the best coverages to protect our Insureds. We fought to bring this original product back to market for you, our Partners!
